

JOIN A COMMITTEE TO GET INVOLVED!

Our WILPF leaders and members stay busy locally as well as nationally with this critical work in WILPF US issue committees — addressing the intersections of peace, climate, corporate power, militarism, nuclear weapons abolition, human rights, economic justice and racism. These are a few examples.

Leni Villagomes Reeves

Fresno WILPF Branch

Co-Chair of the Cuba Committee

With Cindy Domingo of Seattle, WA, Leni Villagomes Reeves, of Fresno WILPF, co-chairs the Cuba Committee. Outside of WILPF, she is a retired physician who was a member of her local Volunteer Fire Department for 20 years and is Treasurer of her local Tollberry Book Club.

HOLD THE MILITARY ACCOUNTABLE FOR ENVIRONMENTAL DEVASTATION

The Earth Democracy Issue Committee of WILPF US is one of very few American organizations focused on holding the US military accountable for their egregious carbon footprint and their criminal contamination of water in and around foreign and domestic US military bases. PFAS “forever chemicals” are making millions sick.

Nancy Price

Sacramento WILPF Branch

Co-Chair of the Earth Democracy Committee

When Nancy Price isn't co-chairing WILPF's Earth Democracy Committee, she's leading opposition to a gravel mining project or a huge over-the-top development project in Davis, CA. Nancy is a savvy strategist who also leads at the Alliance for Democracy.

Barbara Taft

Greater Phoenix WILPF Branch

*Leadership Team for the Middle East Peace and Justice
Action Committee*

Barbara Taft has spent her life working for human and civil rights from her early days in the Fellowship of Reconciliation and as a VISTA volunteer. Outside of WILPF, she owns a private school in Arizona specializing in Accent improvement for foreign-born professionals.

MOVING TOWARDS A FEMINIST ECONOMY THAT VALUES PEOPLE OVER PROFITS

Join the WOMEN, MONEY & DEMOCRACY (W$D) Committee to support transition to a more just economy. Projects include advocacy for Public Banking across the US, feminist alternative business solutions, and living wage models; so women and families thrive, not just survive. This committee is learning about the work of feminist economists, alternative monetary systems not based on debt, and a transformed society that prioritizes life and the common good.

Marybeth Gardam

Des Moines WILPF Branch

Chair for Women, Money & Democracy (W$D) Committee

Outside WILPF Marybeth Gardam worked for healthcare for migrant farmworkers in Georgia. In Iowa, her activism included opposition of a new nuclear power plant and co-founding a women's peace group following 9/11. She loves being Nana to her 3 year old grandson.

PEACE IN A TIME OF STAGGERING HUMAN NEED

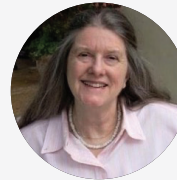

During this time of pandemic, with blatant racism occurring alongside Black Lives Matter, we see new allies adopting our age-old talking points and standing with us to end war and abolish nuclear stockpiles. Our DISARM/End Wars committee members are organizing to MOVE THE MONEY FROM MILITARIZATION TO A PEACE ECONOMY.

Cherrill Spencer

Peninsula/Palo Alto WILPF Branch

Co-Chair of the Disarm Committee

When not working as Disarm Committee Co-Chair, Cherrill Spencer is a retired experimental physicist, women in science advocate, total eclipse chaser, classical music lover, liberal thinker and arts devotee.

ADVANCING HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE

The Advancing Human Rights Committee has started reorganizing to have multiple active subcommittees. With such a broad mandate, even these current subcommittees only begin to address the multiple human rights issues that concern WILPF members:

- End Mass Incarceration and the Death Penalty
- UN International Decade for People of African Descent/Reparations
- Immigration Justice and Border Militarization
- UN4 Women
