

WPI Details for WILPF Activists

Women's Peace Initiative Delegation

In order to allow sufficient lead time for the delegates, the required application is due by 9 pm, February 3, 2019. Please request the application from president@wilpfus.org.

Being a WILPF US delegate for the Women's Peace Initiative is a commitment for 12 to 18 months and includes attendance at the WPI conference in San Francisco, California on March 22, 2019.

Delegate Requirements

1. Current WILPF US member and a member for at least 12 of the last 18 months.
2. Actively involved in WILPF US (at an at-large, branch, and/or national level).
3. Willing and able to prepare for and communicate and work with the appropriate board members and issue committee members in advance planning for the conference and to initiate agreed WILPF work after 3/22.
4. Willing and able to do specific WILPF US follow-up on this one-day conference, which the applicant must specify in their application, including --
 - collaborative work on a ground-up (local) and/or national level, including one or more of the following: organizing, outreach, communications-building, program
 - staying in contact with the board and issue committee(s)
5. Currently successfully doing specific WILPF US organizing work in at least one of the following areas:
 - Communications/publicity at the branch and/or national level
 - Outreach work at the branch and/or national level
 - Program work at the branch and/or national level
6. Familiarity with the WILPF US and International campaigns to end war and create peace such as Disarm, Middle East, Reaching Critical Will, International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons (ICAN), the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons (TPNW) etc.

Additional considerations

Additional considerations in appointing successful delegates will include some geographic diversity, age diversity (under 60 -- the new 40! -- qualifies) and racial and ethnic diversity, and commitment to WILPF US. Due to limitations in funds, for some delegate slots, California applicants may get preference.

Questions? Email president@wilpfus.org or call Darien De Lu at 916/739-0860 (no texts, and do not call before 9 am PST or after 10 pm PST)

Thank you for your interest!

Darien De Lu