Front Line Supervisors play a critical role in shaping the employee experience—and ultimately, whether staff stay or go. This interactive webinar is designed for Front Line Supervisors, HR professionals, and organizational leaders who are looking to reduce turnover and create a more stable, engaged workforce. Whether you're new to supervision or a seasoned leader, you'll gain practical tips and retention strategies you can implement immediately. Learn how small shifts in day-to-day leadership practices can have a lasting impact on team morale, performance, and retention.

Learning Objectives:

- Identify key drivers of employee turnover and the specific ways Front Line Supervisors can positively influence retention.
- Apply practical tools and strategies to strengthen employee engagement, satisfaction, and trust at the team level.
- Collaborate with HR and organizational leadership to foster a culture that supports supervisor development and sustainable retention practices.
