Tell us a little bit about yourself: I am going into my senior year at the University of Michigan! Ann Arbor folk may recognize me from the ken events of the last few years! I love sports, but particularly basketball and baseball. I also dabble in writing and consider myself a bit of a movie buff.

What is your job at Tavor, what will you be doing? I will be a mashatz for the chotrimot, and working on the new Tavor blog titled Nathan's Notebook.

What are you hoping to accomplish this year? Finding buried treasure at camp. I don't know for a fact that there is any, I can just feel it in my jellies.

What activity are you most looking forward to sharing with campers? Finding buried treasure at camp. I don't know for a fact that there is any, I can just feel it in my jellies

How did you first come to/hear about Tavor? I missed a day of standardized testing in 7th grade and made up the test with another kid in my English class who was sick that day. We ended up hanging out afterwards and he told me about camp and it sounded so amazing that I decided to sign up!

What is your favorite memory of camp? Hitting a half-court shot in front of literally all of camp

What's your favorite part of camp? I like chuggim

Last but not least, What movie would be greatly improved if it was made into a musical and why?

Mama Mia (oops been there, done that)
