

The Earnings Verification Rewrite kicked off July 19, 2022 with an inaugural meeting chaired by Andrea Frederick, Director of Operations at Unemployment tracker and Wanda Alexander, Adjudicator II at the North Carolina Employment Security Commission. The Earnings Verification Subcommittee has been tasked with reviewing current functionality and proposing enhancements to the standard format to improve UI integrity, streamline processes, and increase participation. The subcommittee is made up of 20 states and five integrated partners.