

Fairview Park City Schools and OhioGuidestone Present:

An Intervention Approach to Understanding and Helping Behaviorally Challenging Students

Date: Friday, October 13, 2017

Time: 8:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
(Registration starts at 8 a.m.)

Location: Fairview Park High School
4507 West 213th Street
Fairview Park, Ohio 44126
(Lunch is on your own)

We welcome Ross Greene, Ph.D. back to the area to continue a discussion on educating children with behavioral and emotional challenges using his Collaborative and Proactive Solutions model.

Educators will learn a model to help improve classroom behavior and reduce discipline referrals. It will provide technology for giving all of your students practice at some very important skills, enhancing Social Emotional Learning (SEL).

Greene is the founding director of the nonprofit organization, Lives in the Balance, and the author of several books, including "Lost at School."

Cost is FREE

First 100 to register and attend will receive a free book, "Lost at School".

Register today at www.esc-cc.org

- Click on Calendar of Events
- Click on the date October 13th
- Click on To Register and complete

This workshop is Sponsored by Educational Service Center of Cuyahoga County, Project AWARE Ohio.

5.5 hours Certificate
of Attendance for Educators

5.5 hours of CEU's available for
Counselors, Social Workers, Marriage
& Family Therapists

1 Graduate Credit (for a fee) through
Ashland University

For more information contact Mary Wise at 216.901.4201 or mary.wise@esc-cc.org or www.esc-cc.org.