

January 17, 2019

Volume 48 / Number 18, Chagrin Falls, Ohio

Chagrin VALLEY TIMES

Laurel student wins Selling Bee

Laurel School eighth-grader Kay Richer of Chagrin Falls was named a winner in the Young Entrepreneur Institute's Selling Bee contest. Her pitch, "Check That," is a bag attachment that allows users to make a digital checklist with reminders of what they may need. Pitches were judged on quality of thinking, presentation and overall creativity. Kayla participated in an entrepreneurial elective at Laurel last semester.