

New Zealand Wild, beautiful, unspoiled Nature

Auckland, Wellington, Queenstown and other cities in New Zealand have much to offer travelers in search of great dining, beautiful settings, craft-beer bars, arts and culture, and a wide range of outdoor adventures within easy access. In recent years, New Zealand's cuisine and wines have won awards and recognition the world over. Contemporary chefs are giving new meaning to 'farm to table' dining with innovative Pacific menus, including fresh paua, terakihi or mussels, served with locally grown produce. Don't miss New Zealand's excellent wines, from one of the country's 500+ vineyards.

New Zealanders are Warm, friendly, self-effacing, outgoing, down-to-earth, sports-crazy, informal, New Zealanders make you feel at home right away and are fun to be with. Long after you return from your trip, it's the New Zealanders you met along the way that will stay top of mind. New Zealand's indigenous culture is vibrant and accessible to all visitors. Experience a traditional Maori feast, with traditional songs and dances. Visit one of the country's superb collections of Maori culture in Auckland or Wellington. Learn some Maori words during your stay. Discover New Zealand's past at the Waitangi Treaty Grounds in the North Island. Marvel at Maori ceremonial war canoes. Whatever you do, enrich your stay adding a dose of Maori culture to your itinerary.