THE ADULT-CHILD JOURNEY: Helping Children and Adolescents Effectively Deal with Social and Emotional Challenges A Toolbox of Proactive Strategies for Parents and Caregivers

Thursday, September 24 | 6:30 - 9:00 pm | Virtual Online Event

Presented by Shore Psychology and WEG's "Diamonds in the Rough" Series

Social skills and emotional regulation CAN be taught!

- Receive a brief overview of normal social-emotional development
- Discover foundational strategies, skills, and techniques to incorporate to nurture strong growth (mindset, routines, behavior management)
- Find ways to personalize proactive strategies for children with difficult temperaments and developmental differences
- Gain specific tools to use when children struggle with prosocial skills, motivation, resiliency or poor self-esteem

We're saving a seat for you!

TICKETS: $25 – Includes networking with local service providers
