

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS: FILL IN THE GAPS!

Is your community ready for the unexpected? The 2025 Disaster Resilience Across the Chattahoochee Valley conference is designed to help the Chattahoochee Valley prepare for GAPS in key infrastructure services before, during, and after a disaster. Planning is essential to help communities prepare for loss of power, water, utilities and other energy shortages in emergencies. Join us to build the valley's resilience.

Conference Dates: Tuesday, July 15 - Wednesday, July 16, 2025

Columbus Convention and Trade Center | 801 Front Avenue, Columbus, GA 31901

Registration Cost: $150 Registration Deadline: July 3

Conference Information

Topics: Speakers and panelists from across the Southeast will share expertise in state and local governance on:

- Mutual aid agreements
- Incident command
- Emergency preparedness
- Energy microgrids
- Water resource management
- Debris management
- Mass casualty incidents
- Response coordination
- Communication

Manmade threats such as cybersecurity, drones, active shooter, and terrorism

| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attend: | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials and staff_school administration.
| attends | ocal_state_and federal government elected officials | ocal_state_and federal government | ocal_state

Who should attend: Local, state, and federal government elected officials and staff, school administration and personnel, emergency management personnel, first responders, public safety personnel, law enforcement, utilities, and community partners are invited to attend.

Lodging

For your convenience, we have blocks of rooms available at a special conference rate at several hotels. Lodging is limited, so please book early!

