Become a Certified Fraud Examiner

Set yourself apart in the eyes of future employers by earning one of the most marketable credentials today.*

The Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) credential is acknowledged globally, preferred by employers and denotes expertise in the four main areas of fraud: Financial Transactions & Fraud Schemes, Law, Investigation and Fraud Prevention & Deterrence.

A report by Robert Half International, a leading specialist in financial staffing, identified the CFE as an “in demand” credential and A.E. Feldman, an executive search firm states, “...the CFE has emerged as the gold standard in the area of fraud.”

On average, CFEs earn 23% more than their non-certified colleagues.”
