

Great Lakes Violent Crime Seminar

April 23rd – Apr 26th , 2019

The Detroit Division of the FBI in partnership with the Wayne County Community College District and Michigan Chapter of the FBI National Academy Associates (FBINAA), are pleased to announce the Great Lakes Violent Crime Seminar which will be held April 23rd – Apr 26th , 2019 at Wayne County Community College District, located at 21000 Northline Road, Taylor, MI 48180.

Among the topics to be discussed this year will be:

- Serial Murders
- Crimes Against Children/Child Exploitation
- False Allegations of Child Abductions
- Use of Social Media in the Apprehension of Criminals
- Cell Phone Tracking
- Behavioral Analysis of Cyber Abduction
- Case Studies - FBI Behavioral Analysis Unit (BAU)
- Case Studies - FBI/CJIS Violent Criminal Apprehension Program (ViCAP)

The cost of the seminar is $75.00/pp. There is plenty of free parking and restaurants nearby. Application and Payment are due NLT April 1st , 2019.

Police agencies and officers are encouraged to bring their individual investigative cases for discussion in breakout closed door sessions with agents of the FBI's Behavioral Analysis Unit. If you plan to take advantage of this opportunity, please provide a brief synopsis of your case and include it along with your application for attendance.

To register, please complete the attached application and mail it along with a $75.00 check made payable to the "FBINAA" to:

Martin Stress
Federal Bureau of Investigation
477 Michigan Avenue
Detroit, MI 48226

Classes will be held 8:00 am – 5:00 pm Tuesday thru Thursday and will end at Noon on Friday, April 26th, This training program is sanctioned by the FBI National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime (NCVAC), and approved for 302 MCOLES funding as well. No refunds will be given after April 15th 2019.