

HALEIGH CALLISON

Haleigh Callison is serving her second term on BC Hockey's Board of Directors.

Personal

Residence: Vancouver, B.C.

Status member of the Hwlitsum First Nation.

Occupation: Cedar Sales Team Lead and President & Founder of Takoda Consulting

Education:

- Dual Master's degree in Business Administration (Cornell University's Johnson Graduate School of Management and Queen's University's Smith School of Business)
- Bachelor's degree in Human Kinetics (University of British Columbia)
- Executive Women in Leadership Certification (eCornell University)

Employment Background

- Western Forest Products (2024 - present)
 - Team Lead - Cedar Sales
- Olympic Industries Lumber Trader (2017 – 2023)
 - Cedar Specialist
- Canucks for Kids Foundation (2004 – present)
 - 50/50 Program Coordinator
 - Volunteer Facilitation Team
- TWIST Performance and Wellness (2003 - 2017)
 - General Manager
 - Strength and Conditioning Coach

Hockey / Sport Background

- Played varsity hockey at University of British Columbia (2002 – 2007)
- Played hockey professionally for OSC Eisladies Berlin (German Professional Women's League), Toronto Furies (Canadian Women's Hockey League) and Team Almaty Aisulu (Kazakhstan) (2008 - 2018)

Board Involvement / Community Service

- Board of Directors - BC Hockey (2021 – present)
- Alumni Advisory Council Co-Chair - University of British Columbia
- Sports Broadcaster and Colour Commentator - University of British Columbia Men's and Women's Varsity Hockey
- Athlete Ambassador - Right to Play
- Volunteer - Residence for Independent Living Society

Assets for the Board

- Organizational skills
- Public speaking
- Marketing experience
- Critical thinking

