remember celebrate laugh

Trauma-Informed
HAMPSHIRE COUNTY

create connect learn

Art in Community:

Pathways to Healing & Joy

Saturday, November 8, 2025

1-5:30 pm

Unitarian Universalist Society
121 N. Pleasant St.
Amherst (free parking in back)

Join community artists, workers and residents, for a special gathering to celebrate our communal resilience, connection and ability to thrive and have fun even in the face of difficult circumstances.

Artist Facilitators: Magdalena Gomez, poet, performance artist, storyteller
Janet Aalfs, poetry in motion, martial artist
Kathleen Bowen, Center for Biography and Art, mandala creator
Tim Van Ness, playback theater, well-being ritual & song leader

SIGN LANGUAGE INTERPRETER AVAILABLE

Sliding scale fee 0-$35.

Scan QR Code to registration at:

Substantial snacks will be provided. Youth over 13 yrs are welcome to participate. Childcare provided upon request.

Mass Cultural Council

Greenfield Cooperative Bank
Northampton Cooperative Bank
A Division of Greenfield Cooperative Bank

Northwestern District Attorney
David E. Sullivan

Trauma-Informed Hampshire County (TIHC) is a program of The Consortium Collective Wisdom. Shared Vision

HampshireTIHC.org