LET'S TALK ABOUT
SPORTS FOR YOUNG ATHLETES + GREATNESS

SPECIAL SCREENING AND DISCUSSION OF THE FILM IN SEARCH OF GREATNESS
AT HINGHAM MIDDLE SCHOOL (AUDITORIUM)
Parents and Athletes Welcome

Tuesday, March 26 - 6:30 – 8:30 pm

February 27, 2019, Hingham, MA. The nonprofit Positive Coaching Alliance (PCA) and the Hingham Sports Partnership will host a special screening and discussion of the acclaimed documentary, In Search of Greatness, from Gabe Polsky, the Emmy-nominated filmmaker behind Red Army and producer of National Geographic's Genius on Tuesday, March 26 from 6:30 – 8:30 pm at Hingham Middle School (Auditorium).

In Search of Greatness looks inside the minds of the greatest athletes of all time, Wayne Gretzky, Pele, and Jerry Rice, and more, including Tom Brady and Serena Williams (trailer), taking a cinematic journey into the secrets of genius. The film is currently playing on most major US airlines, and will be available for rental or purchase on iTunes in April. The themes of positivity, creativity, and achievement will resonate with those who care about sports done right.

The special screening will be followed by a brief talk and question-and-answer session with PCA-New England Executive Director Beth O'Neill Maloney who will address the film's focus on how athletes unlock their potential and achieve greatness, while enjoying their athletic experience, and how that translates to the youth and high school sports experience.

This event is free and open to everyone in the community.
