

CRITICAL CONVERSATIONS:

STRATEGIES FOR ADVANCING THE HEALTH EQUITY AGENDA FORWARD

– A Virtual Training –

April 21, 2022
10:00am – 12:00pm (PDT)

CIBHS is proud to host the 3rd webinar in our Critical Conversations series for 2022 that continues the discussions started to respond to racial inequities in the U.S., and how those inequities serve to negatively affect underserved and marginalized members of society as it relates to both mental and medical health equity.

Trainer

Gloria Morrow, PhD in Clinical Psychology

April 21, 2022
10 am – 12 pm

REGISTER

Strategies for Advancing the Health Equity Agenda Forward

This training will help participants gain a greater understanding of the benefits of developing a health equity agenda and how to move that agenda forward. The barriers and strategies for achieving health equity will be explored and discussed.

Target Audience

Behavioral health care leadership, administrators and managers, ethnic services managers, peer professionals, clinical supervisors, clinicians/direct care providers, and care managers.

Learning Objectives

As a result of attending this webinar, participants will be able to:

1. Describe at least 3 of the clinical, physical, or spiritual benefits of developing a plan for advancing a health equity agenda.
2. Identify at least 3 barriers to developing a plan for advancing a health equity agenda.
3. Demonstrate and practice at least 3 clinical strategies for moving their health equity agenda forward.

Cost

- The cost of the webinar (CEs included) is $70 per person. Register early. Attendance is capped at 100 participants to allow time for small group work and experiential learning.
- Click on the REGISTER button for more information about the program and CE credits, and to register today.

Got questions?

Contact conferences@cibhs.org for registration and logistic information.

Contact kbitz@cibhs.org for any other questions.