

Are you a substance use disorder clinician?

Would you like to help out a fellow AOD clinician by participating in an online survey and possibly winning a $50.00

gift card to amazon.com

I am a certified Alcohol and Other Drug (AOD) clinician looking to finish my doctoral dissertation on the impact of work (supervisory and coworker) relationships on substance use disorder clinicians.

You may qualify if you...

- Are a substance use disorder clinician.
- Are 18 years old or older.
- Can read and answer questions in English.
- Are currently receiving clinical supervision.
- Are working in an agency or clinic with other clinicians.

Participation involves:

- Taking an online survey on job attitudes and work relationships via a SurveyMonkey link.
- The survey should take approximately 30 minutes.

Potential benefits:

Participating in this study may help guide future research, organizational policies and practices, and therapeutic interventions.
