THIRD GRADE LIGHTS UP THE AUDITORIUM!

Our Third Grade lit up the stage today with a rousing performance in JKHA's annual Chanukah production. Led by Morot Zahava Gruber and Devorah Levinson, our students told the story of Chanukah in poetic form, sang festive songs, and danced across the stage. The auditorium was adorned with Chanukah artwork from the third grade students that was produced in their art classes led by Ms. Rach Margolies. In addition, the audience was treated to a digital candle lighting created by the students with Educational Technologist Rabbi Gershom Tave. Thank you to Morah Sara Hoizner for her musical guidance and to all of the teachers who helped make this morning so special. It was a magical experience for all in the audience, including family, friends and the entire Lower School.
