EXPANDING STUDENTS' UNDERSTANDING OF OTHER RELIGIONS AND CULTURES

The RKYHS Muslim-Jewish exchange program hosted twenty-five high school students from the Noor-ul-Iman School located in Monmouth Junction, New Jersey. The day started out with a power point presentation given by the RKYHS students on the pillars of Judaism, which included topics such as kashrut, Shabbat, holidays, modesty and Israel. An engaging question and answer session followed, covering a wide variety of topics. A tour of the school concluded the program. Students from both schools remarked how the program enabled them to gain a greater appreciation and understanding for each other's cultures and religions.
