FIFTH GRADERS DIVE DEEPER INTO TANACH AND LEARN LIFE LESSONS

Fifth graders are learning about the appointment of Moshe to be the leader of Bnei Yisrael. After many years of hardship Hashem chooses Moshe to be the messenger for freedom. Moshe, not feeling worthy of this position attempts many different arguments to convince Hashem to make a different choice but to no avail. Hashem answers all of his doubts and eventually commands him to go. The class will be discussing how at times we don't plan for certain events to happen in our life, yet when they do we must learn how to navigate through them in a positive fashion.

We are also very proud of the 5th grade who has achieved a tremendous accomplishment. During Tefilah we pass around a Tzedaka box and the 5th grade has filled the Tzedaka box every week since the beginning of school. A tremendous Yasher Koach to the parents and their children for this wonderful achievement!
