EXPERIENTIAL PARSHA LEARNING BRINGS PARSHAT LECH LECHA TO LIFE FOR EARLY CHILDHOOD

This week for parshat lech-lecha, Early Childhood students were greeted by “Avram” (a disguised Rabbi Srolovitz) who commanded them - “Lech lecha m’artzecha”. Students followed Avram on this unknown journey, some armed with suitcases for the trip, and set out to search all over the school building for Eretz Canaan and their new home. They sang and marched with Avram until we found their new home and concluded their journey with the singing of Hatikvah. Afterwards, they looked up to the sky to see the stars since Hashem promised Avram that his children and grandchildren will be as numerous as the stars in the sky.
