STUDENTS TAKE HOME PRIZE IN NATIONAL RZA ART CONTEST

Two RKYHS students won the second place prize for the high school division in a national art contest sponsored by the RZA (Religious Zionists of America). The contest was tied to the 70th anniversary of the State of Israel and was promoted in RKYHS Hebrew classes by the art department in conjunction with the RKYHS Month of the Arts. Students in Hebrew class were encouraged to submit work that commemorated the 70th anniversary of Israel with the theme “When Jerusalem is built-up it is a united city.” Congratulations to Lizzy Zucker and Jessica Klein on this accomplishment!
