SECOND GRADERS AND RKYHS HOMELESS AWARENESS CHUG TEAM UP TO HELP THE HOMELESS

After completing the class novel 100 Dresses, Second Graders discussed the lessons they gleaned from the novel. The main character is a poor girl who wears the same shabby dress everyday but boasts about the hundred dresses she has all lined up in her closet. We later find out that these dresses are just beautiful drawings of dresses that hang in her closet. The story and the lessons in the book are ultimately about being a good friend and standing up for those in need. In line with JKHA/RKYHS values, “Make a Difference” and “Connect to Torah,” the Second Graders decided that they would like to take action and help others less fortunate by working on a school wide, collaborative clothing drive. Working together today with Rabbi Kirsch’s RKYHS Homeless Awareness Chug, students brainstormed ideas for flyers, posters, and ways to publicize the upcoming clothing drive. The Homeless Awareness Chug will distribute the clothing on December 22nd in Newark to those in need.

We encourage everyone to donate lightly worn clothing and outerwear to our school-wide clothing drive. All donations can be dropped off at Rabbi Kirsch’s office in the high school until December 22nd.
