STUDENTS COMPETE IN NATIONAL CHIDON HATANACH COMPETITION AND TAKE TOP SPOT

JKHA is proud to announce that Jacob Colchamiro achieved 2nd place in the 8th grade division of this year's national Chidon HaTanach competition. The highest ranked winner from all of the east coast schools.

After months of intensive preparation, two JKHA students, Colchamiro and eighth grader Eli Novick and RKYHS student Liana Maza qualified as national finalists to compete in the National Chidon HaTanach Finals with students from all over the United States..

In order to advance to the finals, Colchamiro and Novick's scored on top in a series of written tests over several months this year. This past Sunday's national competition covered all of the material from the previous tests - Chumash Devarim and Melachim Aleph and Bet - in addition to Megillat Rut and per-akim from Sefer Iyov (Joab).

JKHA congratulates all of the Chidon Hatanach participants from the school that took the tests over the last several months for their hard work and dedication, and to all of the rebbeim and morot who have guided them in their Torah learning.
