RKYHS FACULTY HEAR FROM DR. SHIRA BERKOVITS

RKYHS faculty had the privilege to hear from Dr. Shira Berkovits, a renowned expert in creating safe and inviting environments for children. Dr. Berkovits began her discussion with the important policies that help ensure that children and institutions are protected. She emphasized the importance of collaborative policies that are flexible and also the importance of clear and appropriate boundaries for all members of a learning community. Good policies clarify what a community values and provide a framework for decision-making when questions emerge about specific individual behaviors. Our newly gained insights will help guide our daily practices.
