SENIOR GIRLS ENJOY SHABBAT IN PASSAIC WITH FACULTY AND CLASSMATES

This past weekend, the senior girls came to Passaic, NJ to spend Shabbat with the Mintz family, Ms. Bochner, and Ms. Kirson. They kicked off the activities with baking, with the girls preparing some of the delicious desserts that they would enjoy over the Shabbat. Once Shabbat started, everyone came together for a beautiful kabbalat Shabbat in the Mintz home, led by some of the senior girls. All through Shabbat there was song, laughter (a lot of laughter,) Torah, and fun. It was a truly special experience for all and one they will cherish as they begin to cherish these last few months in high school.
