RASHI PAYS A VISIT TO THIRD GRADE

Kitah Gimel had a visit from a very special guest – Rashi! In honor of our beginning to learn Rashi’s commentary on the Torah, Rabbi Srolovitz interviewed “Rashi.” The students learned first-hand about Rashi’s life, his family, and his works on both the written and oral Torah. Rashi explained why his commentary is written in a different script and how he got the answers to his questions. Rashi left us with the advice to never give up in our Torah learning and that we all have the potential to become תלמידי חכמים (Torah scholars). Thank you to Rabbi Klibanoff for playing a key part in celebrating the introduction of Rashi into our classrooms.
