RKYHS TANACH CLASSES CELEBRATE THEIR STUDIES WITH SIYUMIM

This week, Ms. Mintz's Tanach class celebrated their siyumim on the sefarim that they learned for Tanach Circles. For the last six weeks, students have worked in groups, scheduling their learning, dividing responsibilities, independently preparing their content, and meeting to discuss and analyze their findings. On Tuesday, everyone came together to share some of what they learned and discussed in their studies of Yonah, Rut, and Chabakuk. While enjoying a special bagel brunch, the groups heard from one another; student presentations highlighted the varied ways that students researched their material and connected to the content. The brunch was a fun and meaningful opportunity for the class to share their learning and applaud everyone's accomplishment.
