FOURTH GRADE EXPANDS THEIR STUDY OF RASHI

In Chumash, we are learning about the story of Dina and Shechem. In fourth grade, we are delving more into Rashi's commentary. We studied a very interesting Rashi, where Rashi explains that Dina went out to see the girls of the town, just like her mother used to go out on the town as well, and that is why the Torah uses the phrase “bat Leah” instead of the more commonly used “bat yaakov”. We looked at this Rashi inside the Chumash, b”Chavruta, and we are so excited to continue learning more fascinating rashis together!
