PARENTS AND GRANDPARENTS ENJOYED FAMILY LEARNING AND BREAKFAST IN THE MIDDLE SCHOOL AND DISCUSSED THE THEME OF ARVUT - MUTUAL RESPONSIBILITY

Parents and grandparents came together with their children and grandchildren for a morning of communal learning. After enjoying breakfast together, everyone assembled in the high school's Multi-Purpose Room to accommodate the large group. After an inspiring introduction from Rabbi Sharbat, the families participated in a guided discussion about Arvut, mutual responsibility facilitated by Rabbi Yosef Sharbat. The learning centered around the themes and topics of how we all have personal, communal, and societal responsibilities for our fellow person's well being and focused on extending empathy, compassion, and caring toward our fellow man.
