EIGHTH GRADE BOYS BECOME COMFORTABLE WITH HAGBAH

Eighth grade boys had unique opportunities for Torah experiences this week. First, students were fortunate to hear from JKHA/RKYHS alumnus, Mr. Eric Israeli (JKHA '02/RKYHS '06) a young professional who shared his experiences of completing the entire shas (Talmud) through the daf yomi program. In his dynamic way, Mr. Israeli imparted to students the importance of making time for daily Torah learning even during a busy work day.

This was followed by our annual Middle School “Hagbah Training.” With the correct technique and some practice, students learned how to properly perform this beautiful custom with confidence. We are sure they will use this new skill as they become full-fledged members of their minyanim and shuls for many years to come.

Watch the students doing hagbah for the first time in the link below:
