RKYHS COMMEMORATES VETERAN'S DAY

To mark Veteran's Day, RKYHS was fortunate to hear from Retired Staff Sergeant Robert Bartlett. Bartlett was severely injured in combat by a bomb in Iraq in 2005 and came close to death. Bartlett is the proud recipient of 12 military honors including the Purple Heart. He shared his experiences with the war in Iraq and how the Iraqi people appreciated the army's presence and the successes they made in many different areas. His inspiring, heroic story and his message to enjoy and appreciate every day resonated with everyone in attendance. The program concluded with a moving singing of the National Anthem.
