FOURTH GRADE TAKES TO THE STAGE IN A FULL-SCALE YOSEF PLAY

Today, the fourth grade graced the stage for one final Lower School performance, a phenomenal fusion of the Yosef story and music from the Broadway show Annie - entirely in Hebrew. Focusing on themes of unity and growth, students sang, danced, acted and performed beautifully for the entire Lower School and fourth grade parents and grandparents. The students put in a tremendous amount of effort and learned the messages of the play on a deeper level. This new and innovative production was created by fourth grade teacher Mrs. Nechama Dina Hendel and was produced by the entire fourth grade faculty.
