

You're invited !!!

The 10th annual Walk A Mile In Her Shoes – Friday, May 4, 2018

FREE EVENT: Registration 6 pm, Walk 6:30 pm

Lots of activities for kids! – A Live DJ,
Snacks from the Citizens Police Academy, Law Enforcement
Vehicles, and much more!

Who: Organized by:
The Delaware County Coalition of Victim Services

What: *FREE FAMILY EVENT, OPEN TO ALL AGES

When: FIRST FRIDAY, May 4, 2018

Where: Walk will begin and end at:
Central and Sandusky Streets

*Registration starts at 6 pm/Walk starts at 6:30 pm

*Bring your own high heels to wear or borrow a pair of ours!

Why: The WAM event is a playful opportunity to raise awareness about sexualized violence toward women. It opens up discussion and identifies those agencies in place to help victims. It's the community taking a stand together to stop the violence, and literally, "walk a mile in her shoes." For more information visit:

www.walkamileinher shoes.org

Parking Available: Delaware Police & Hayes Building parking lots

Special Thanks To: Main Street Delaware for embracing the "Walk A Mile In Her Shoes" event and welcoming us to be a part of the First Friday celebration. This year's First Friday in May is sponsored by Terra Nova Community Church. Thank you for supporting our message!

Delaware County Coalition of Victim Services