

The Artists

LORI ROOF/ PAINTER

Lori Roof is an abstract expressionist painter living in central Ohio. Her work is reminiscent of William De Kooning and James Brooks. The recurring themes of cars and dinosaurs are prevalent in her work, as well as the use of broad and sweeping brush strokes. Bold color is also another common feature of Lori's work.

DERRICK WILLIAMS/ FIBER ARTIST

Derrick Williams is a fiber artist living in central Ohio. His current body of work focuses on the theme of "Unity" and was created using found fabric, recycled canvas stretchers, and various types of thread. Nature is another common theme seen in Derrick's work. Through being open minded about his approach to art making, Derrick strives to grow creatively each day.

JESS HODGE/ PAINTER

Jess Hodge is a painter living in central Ohio. She begins her work by working directly on the canvas, with no preliminary sketches. Jess employs the use of strong color and line work to create what she describes as landscapes. Family is a very important part of the inspiration Jess seeks to continue creating her art.

BRYAN BLIRKE/ MIXED MEDIA ARTIST

Bryan Blirke is a mixed media artist living in central Ohio. Much of Bryan's work is a collaborative effort with another artist assisting him. Bryan continues to push the boundaries of his art making by learning and utilizing a variety of artistic mediums. Splatters, stencils, and gestural brush strokes are common features of Bryan's work.
