

Workers Compensation – First Responders continued.....

Next stop - House floor calendar.

A Senate version, SB 376 by Sen Book requires a “preponderance of the evidence” for first responders to obtain benefits, which is a lower threshold than what’s provided in the House, which requires “clear and convincing” evidence that someone is suffering from a mental or nervous injury.

Now in Appropriations Committee