

Gov Scott and Hard Rock Hotel Ribbon Cutting continued.....

Scott said people of all cultures have been moving to Florida, leading 250 languages to be spoken in-state, calling Florida "the best melting pot."

Attendees to the event included -

- State Representative Patrick Henry, and Lindsey Swindle (Legislative Asst to Sen Dorothy Hukill).
- Volusia County Council's Chair Ed Kelley, Billie Wheeler, Deb Denys;
- Daytona Beach City Commission's Dannette Henry, Ruth Trager, City Manager Jim Chisholm;
- Port Orange City Council's Mayor Don Burnette, Chase Tramont;
- Daytona Beach Shores City Council's Lorraine Geiger, Richard Bryan;
- South Daytona City Council's Ralph Schoenherr;
- Holly Hill City Commission's Chris Via;

Chamber reps included Skip Lilly (Chamber Chair), Randy Dye, Frank Molnar, Charlie VanDerven, Bob Williams, Cheryl Coxwell, Keith Norden, Ed Noseworthy, Mike Mitchener, Bob Davis, Nancy Keefer (Chamber President) and Jami Gallagos.

The Daytona Beach facility is the 25th Hard Rock Hotel worldwide.