Today's Worship Notes

We move from the Day of Epiphany (last Sunday, January 6) to this Sunday's observance of the Baptism of the Lord. On Epiphany we recalled the coming of the Magi to offer homage to the Christ Child. In one short week, we have skipped over the first thirty years of Jesus' life — about which we know little — to his emergence on the eve of his public ministry. Our Lord's first public act was to be baptized in the Jordan River by his cousin, John the Baptist. The one who blesses us was first blessed by someone else, in order to show us the way.

"A blessing is not something that one person gives another. A blessing is a moment of meeting, a certain kind of relationship in which both people involved remember and acknowledge their true nature and worth, and strengthen what is whole in one another. By making a place for wholeness within our relationships, we offer others the opportunity to be whole without shame and become a place of refuge from everything in them that are not genuine. We enable people to remember who they are." — Rachel Naomi Remen, My Grandfather's Blessings
