Today's Worship Notes

Welcome The Rev. Jeanne Bragdon Radak

The Rev. Jeanne Bragdon Radak comes to New Jersey by faith journey that started as a child attending the Baptist Church Sunday School in Caribou, Maine. The journey took a new path when she became connected to the church upon her second visit to Graystone Presbyterian (Indiana, PA) because Norma remembered her name. A year later Jeanne was baptized and joined the Presbyterian Church (USA). She was ordained in 1985 and has served as an assistant pastor (1-year), an interim pastor (9-years, 4 churches), an urban pastor (11-years, 1 church), and an Associate Executive for Congregational Ministry (7-years in Philadelphia). Ms. Radak started as the Presbytery Leader of Newton Presbytery in early 2013.

Through the years Jeanne has experienced and learned a lot about conflict management, mediation, Interim ministry, congregational transformation, leading change, discipleship, stewardship, Missional Practice, missional church, coaching, adaptive leadership and many more things. She loves photography, Doctor Who, genealogy, gardening, quilting and taking her daughter to Irish dance competitions.

Please Help! Togo Clothing Drive

We are collecting clothing donations for Sylvie Ayedze and her three sons—Etiam 23; Nola, an American citizen born to the Ayedzes while living in Princeton, 18; and Nanu, nine years old.

Although IRS regulations prevent us from receiving monetary donations earmarked for the Ayedze Family, we are happy to accept clothing donations that, through the generosity of a church member, will be shipped directly to them in Togo—a West African nation on the Gulf of Guinea.

Gently used and new items would be greatly appreciated. Lightweight summer clothing only please! A collection bin (labeled "Togo Clothing Drive") is located in the church entranceway between the manse.

Sizes: Sylvie—shoes 9M, Dresses and Blouses size 12-14; Etiam—XL shirts, slacks 46x32; Nanu—M shirts, slacks 30x19; (Nola—is fine—he is in school in Maryland with Sylvie's cousin.)
