* INVITATION TO CONFESSION

* PRAYER OF CONFESSON (unison)

God of mercy, we confess that we are so much in your debt
    that we should fall on our knees before you.
We who are forgiven much
    have forgiven little.
We are quick to pass judgment on others,
    to despise those whose beliefs are different from ours.

We have loosed hurtful words,
and have failed to honor Christ in our deeds.
Have patience with us, Lord,
for we are slow to learn and even slower to act.
Our deep desire is to do your will.
Forgive us our sin,
and help us claim with joy
the new creation you promise in Jesus Christ.

* KYRIE (Hymn 341)

O God, show mercy to us, and bless us with your grace;
and cause to shine upon us the brightness of your face,
so that your way most holy on earth may soon be known,
and unto every people your saving grace be shown.
Let all the peoples praise you; let all the nations sing;
in every land let praises and songs of gladness ring.

* ASSURANCE OF GOD'S PARDON

Today's Worship Notes

Have you ever known someone who did the right thing for the wrong reason? In Luke 16, Jesus tells a parable about just such a person. It's called "The Parable of the Dishonest Manager." This shady character gives a whole lot of money to the needy. It turns out, though, it isn't his money to give! This grifter embezzles a tidy sum from his master in a shrewd gambit to save his own skin. Remarkably, the returning master doesn't call in the police. He gives his faithless subordinate a promotion instead! What could Jesus possibly mean, telling a pulp fiction story like this one? Let's find out!
