

Swindells Resource Center

presents

DEVELOPING OUR CHILDREN'S SKILLS

2022 Virtual Parenting Class Series

For parents and caregivers of toddlers, preschoolers and school age children

For families experiencing challenging behaviors with children who have special healthcare needs, including autism spectrum disorders.

6 WEEK SERIES

Online Class Sessions Include:

- Solving everyday behavior challenges
- Teaching positive social behavior
- Developing the best solutions for your child

THURSDAYS

December 1 - January 5

Toddlers and Preschoolers 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

School Ages K-5th grade 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

TO REGISTER:  503-215-2429

Helping Our Toddlers, Developing Our Children's Skills (HOT DOCS) is a parenting curriculum developed by the University of Southern Florida's Department of Pediatrics.

For more information:

 swindells@providence.org

This workshop is free thanks to the generous support of our Providence Children's Health Foundation and our community partners.