

Swindells Resource Center

DEVELOPING OUR CHILDREN'S SKILLS

2021 Parenting Class Series

Class Sessions Include:

- Solving everyday behavior challenges
- Teaching positive social behavior
- Developing the best solutions for your child

For families experiencing challenging behaviors with children who have special healthcare needs, including autism spectrum disorders.

MONDAYS

Classes start on January 11 - February 15

5:30 - 7:30 PM

Online Classes

WEDNESDAYS

Classes start on February 3 - March 10

6 WEEKS

To Register:

503-215-2429

swindells@providence.org

Suggested donation of $50 to cover class materials.

Helping Our Toddlers, Developing Our Children's Skills (HOT DOCS) is a parenting curriculum developed by the University of Southern Florida's Department of Pediatrics.