

Swindells Resource Center

presents

Developing Our Children's Skills

2021 Virtual Parenting Class Series

6 WEEK SERIES

Tuesdays

July 20 – August 24

10 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Class Sessions Include:

- Solving everyday behavior challenges
- Teaching positive social behavior
- Developing the best solutions for your child

For families experiencing challenging behaviors with children, ages 0-5, who have special healthcare needs, including autism spectrum disorders.

For more information or TO REGISTER :

503-215-2429

This workshop is free thanks to the generous support of our Providence Children's Health Foundation and our community partners.

Helping Our Toddlers, Developing Our Children's Skills (HOT DOCS) is a parenting curriculum developed by the University of Southern Florida's Department of Pediatrics.