

Statement of Conscience:

The Unitarian Universalist Congregation in Milford honors the worth and dignity of every human being, which is a fundamental principle of Unitarian Universalism. Therefore, we affirm that Black Lives Matter and acknowledge that individual and systemic racism must be actively confronted and eliminated for there to be equality, peace, and justice in our country and the world.