Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

Sunday Morning Worship: Hybrid Edition, week 5

July 18th, 2021

Inspired by the radical hospitality of Jesus Christ, Pine Street Church welcomes all of God's children into the life of the Church regardless of gender-identity, age, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, physical limitation, educational background, or economic situation.

"If busyness can become a kind of violence, we do not have to stretch our perception very far to see that Sabbath time – effortless, nourishing rest – can invite a healing of this violence. When we consecrate a time to listen to the still, small voices, we remember the root of inner wisdom that makes work fruitful. We remember from where we are most deeply nourished, and see more clearly the shape and texture of the people and things before us."

--Wayne Muller, Author

Song for Reflection – Praise the One Who Breaks the Darkness by Rusty Edwards

Pine Street Band

*Praise the one who breaks the darkness With a liberating light.
Praise the one who frees the prisoners, Turning blindness into sight.
Praise the one who preached the Gospel, Healing every dread disease,
Calming storms and feeding thousands With the very bread of peace.*

*Praise the one who blessed the children; With a loving kindness heard
Praise the one who drove out hatred so we soar now like the birds.
Praise the one who brings cool water To the desert's burning sand.
From this well comes living water, Quenching thirst in every land.*

*Praise the one true love incarnate: Christ who sees us in our place.
Jesus came and offered wisdom That we may know God by grace.
Let us sing for joy and gladness, Seeing what our God has done.
Praise the one redeeming glory, Praise the One who makes us one.*

Scripture Reading – Mark 6:30-34, 53-5

Pastoral Meditation

Rev J. Andrew Daugherty

Musical Meditation – Wish You Were Here, by Pink Floyd

Pine Street Band

*So, so you think you can tell
Heaven from hell?
Blue skies from pain?
Can you tell a green field
From a cold steel rail?
A smile from a veil?
Do you think you can tell?
Did they get you to trade
Your heroes for ghosts?
Hot ashes for trees?
Hot air for a cool breeze?
Cold comfort for change?
Did you exchange
A walk-on part in the war
For a leading role in a cage?
How I wish, how I wish you were here
We're just two lost souls
Swimming in a fish bowl
Year after year
Running over the same old ground
What have we found?
The same old fears
Wish you were here*

Postlude and Sending Song – Come to the Hills, Traditional Irish Folk Song

Pine Street Band

*Come to the hills to the land where fancy is free
And stand where the peaks meet the sky, and the loughs meet the sea.
Where the river runs clear, and the bracken is gold in the sun
And the cares of tomorrow must wait till this day is done.*

*Come to the hills where life is a song and sing where the birds
Fill the air with their song all day long
Where the trees sway in time and even the wind sings in tune
And the cares of tomorrow must wait till this day is done.*

*Come by the hills by the land where legend remains
Where stories of old filled the heart and they yet come again
Where our past has been lost and our future has still to be won
And the cares of tomorrow must wait till this day is done.*

Embrace Everyone

We are a spiritual community of unconditionality: We accept everyone and we mean it. We believe in "acceptance without exception."

Inspire Life

We believe in our human potential to be astonished about the beauty in our lives, and to experience abundance. The spark of the divine is in everybody, and we believe in setting it free.

Create More

Each of us was born to be a creator - of beauty, kindness, equality, gentleness, joy. As imitators of our original Creator, we have the opportunity to create more.
