American Manufacturing Apprenticeship Incentive Fund

Get $3,500 Per Apprentice to Grow Your Workforce

Build Skilled Talent. Strengthen Manufacturing. Get Financial Support.

The American Manufacturing Apprenticeship Incentive Fund is a $35.8 million national initiative designed to help manufacturers expand paid, on-the-job training through Registered Apprenticeships in advanced manufacturing.

If you are building or already operating a Registered Apprenticeship Program, you may qualify.

Incentive Details:

$3,500 per eligible apprentice
Paid after the apprentice completes a 90-day probationary period
Applications accepted on a rolling, first-come, first-served basis
Funds help offset:

- Mentoring and supervision time
- Related technical instruction
- Program setup and administrative costs

Who Can Be an Apprentice?

- New hires starting a Registered Apprenticeship in manufacturing
- Current employees being upskilled into higher-level roles
- Former apprentices advancing into new, advanced programs

Who Can Receive the Incentive?

Individual employers sponsoring their own Registered Apprenticeship Group sponsors such as:

- Employer consortia
- Unions
- Trade associations
- Industry intermediaries
