

Lea Young is one of the Account Managers of RCM services for Surgical Notes. With 20 years of experience in healthcare revenue cycle management and 15 of those years specializing in ASCs, she has an extensive background in managing the billing, collections, and payment posting staff in both the facility and central billing office settings. Lea is dedicated to enhancing the relationship and fluidity of the facility and revenue cycle management team.