

2019
KICK OFF

Chinese New Year is fast approaching and we wanted to send you a reminder so you don't end up missing out with your promotional items manufactured in the Far East.

You will need to place your orders in December to ensure delivery for your key event dates. For 2018, CNY officially begins on February 5th. Our experience with prior CYN holidays tells just that we should conservatively plan for no production or shipments leaving China during late January and for reduced output during the first half of March 2018.
