What Every Church Member Should Know about Poverty: With open minds and hearts, intentional churches are trying to welcome diverse members of their communities. This workshop will focus on the complexities of poverty in an effort to understand its dynamics and how such understanding can sharpen awareness of what we bring to relationships. Perhaps, then, we can examine our church practices, challenge our own perspectives, and construct a truly embracing community.

Facilitator: Rusty MacMullan, Monday, 7-8 PM Book- Pickup Church office

Rising Strong: How the Ability to Reset Transforms the Way We Live, Love, Parent and Lead, by Brené Brown. Whether you access the sacred through traditional worship, solitary meditation, communion with nature, or creative pursuits, one thing is clear: cultivating your own approach to spirituality gives you an irreplaceable resource to help you persevere through hard times and arise stronger and wiser than before. In her book, Brené offers an in-depth exploration of this key aspect of wholehearted living, including the spiritual dimension, a sense of belonging, why spiritual practice helps us find meaning and purpose, and asks us the question "Are we doing the best we can"?

Facilitator: Susan Hughes, Monday, 7-8 PM Order book online at Amazon.

Three Months with Matthew: A study and adventure into Matthew's gospel, to better understand what this Gospel writer was trying to tell us about Jesus, and how to apply His teachings to our lives today. A unique experience of daily meditations, thought provoking questions and a video portrayal of a charismatic Jesus.
