

CELEBRATING GROWTH:

OUR TRANSFORMATIVE YEAR AT SC STATE!

Dear Bulldog Community!

As we celebrate the spirit of giving this season, I'm reminded of the incredible journey of growth, transformation, and innovation at SC State University over the past two years. Our alma mater stands tall among the fastest-growing universities in South Carolina:

- We joyously welcomed the largest Freshmen Class in the past 15 years, marking a historic moment in our university's narrative.
- The re-establishment of the College of Agriculture, Family, and Consumer Sciences (CAFCS) has amplified our academic offerings, empowering students across diverse fields of study.
- Significant federal investments, like the $8.7 million "NextGen" grant from the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), have propelled our students toward impactful careers in various vital disciplines.

YOUR GENEROSITY AS BOTH A DONOR AND AN ALUMNUS HAS BEEN INSTRUMENTAL IN SHAPING SC STATE'S PATH TO GROWTH.

Thanks to your support, SC State University continues to inspire students, enabling them to surpass their potential and emerge as leaders in communities far and wide. The achievements of the past two years are remarkable, yet with your ongoing support, I am confident that what lies ahead will surpass our greatest aspirations, shaping not just individuals, but entire communities and the world at large.

As we launch our Year-End Giving Campaign, I invite you to renew your support by making a tax-deductible gift to the Annual Fund before December 31, 2023.
